SOCIETY

About 150 members of the younger society set were invited hast evening to a dance given by Captain John A. Coke, Coke and Mr. and Mrs. John A. Coke, Jr., in honor of Captain Coke's grand-daughter, Miss Empsie Coke Flannazan, at the Country Club of Virginia. It was Miss Coke's debut, and a number of beautiful bouquets were sent her in honor of her coming out party. She wore a French frock of pale lavender Georgette crepe and carried a nosegay of pink orchids.

Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Flannagan assisted Captain Coke and Mr. and Mrs. 190ke in doing the honors of the evening and received with their daughter. The clubhouse was prettly decorated in Christmas greens and holly, and a funfiel supper was served at 11 o'clock. An orchestra played for the dancing. Miss Coke, who is spending the winter with her grandfather at his home. West Franklin Street, is a charming girl, and a number of informationes have been planned in her honor.

Pile Driver Operators and Portable Engineers Numbering 1,000 Join Carpenters.

IBy Associated Press.]

NEW ORLEANS, January 2.—One thousand workmen, members of pile drivers' and portable engineers' unions engaged in work on the industrial ganal-here went on strike to-ddy for ligher wages. Twelve hundred carpenters who had been building army supply depois already are on strike.

Members of fourteen other building trades unions still were at work to-day pending further conferences between their leaders and business injecests.

A general strike of all men affiliated with building trades unions was ordered for to-day, but both sides expressed hopes that the conferences would result in a settlement of differences which arose because of a sympathetic strike of the carpenters.
